

—Gov. Jerome passed through town last week on his way to Saginaw.

—C. F. Michael's dance last Tuesday night was attended by over 50 couples.

—Forepaugh's mammoth aggregation of wonders at Port Huron on Monday.

—The confidence gang are operating again at the narrow gauge junction.

—Mr. Emery, of Rochester, takes possession of the Rapley House the first of July.

—The Western Historical Company have commenced work on the history of this county.

—C. F. Michaels expects to have his new building ready for occupancy by the 20th inst.

—President Arthur has signed the Chinese bill. The Pacific coast fired salutes in gratification thereof.

—Of course you know all about the heavy rainstorms of last week, so we will say nothing about it.

—Business does not partake of its accustomed activity at present—the farmers are all too busy with their farm work.

—Senator Conger has become the owner of a chandelier, once a part of the furniture of the old Michigan State House.

—Port Huron expects to reap a rich harvest from the consolidation of the Grand Trunk and Great Western railroads.

—As soon as we get our artillery thoroughly in position we shall fire a whole broadside at the defective sidewalks in town.

—Right here we wish to thank those who kindly assisted us in moving our material. We will endeavor to remember you in the future.

—Thos. Rapley has purchased the Ferguson House, for $3,500. Mr. Rapley is a good hotel man, and we trust he will succeed in his new enterprise.

—Mrs. L. M. Boise, of Grand Rapids, spoke on temperance at the M. E. Church on Tuesday evening of last week. She is a very pleasant and interesting speaker.

—No need of sending away for your job printing now, for you can get it done at this office at reasonable rates. Just remember this fact, please, when you want any printing done.

—This week the Capae Argus turns up its little toes and passes into the last long slumber. 'Tis too bad, for it was good paper—but alas the Capaeers let it die from insufficient support.

—The Board of Review consisting of J. D. Jones, Lansing Bidleman and Franklin Barker, will meet next Monday and Tuesday, May 22 and 23, at the office of the supervisor in Brockway Centre.

—Some of the boys indulged in throwing, odoriferous eggs at Michael's new building on Tuesday evening. Tut, tut, lads! The Exposition will be obliged to give you away if you repeat the performance.

—Did you ever see a six-foot man crowded into a three-foot suit of clothes? If so, you can appreciate our present office conveniences as regards room. But all things running smoothly, we will have more convenient quarters in about two months.

—Brockway Centre is in need of manufacturing enterprises, and we can see no good reason why it should not have them. There are here good shipping facilities and a splendid surrounding country. If our people would form themselves into an association to secure the advancement of the village in this line, a substantial benefit could be obtained. Is it not worth the trying.

—There are at present a large number of new buildings being erected in town.

—E. B. Chamberlain, of Point St. Ignace, was visiting old friends last week.

—School was closed last week Wednesday afternoon on account of no wood.

—Thos. Rapley will enlarge and greatly improve the Ferguson House property.

—Levi Morrill will have his land south of the railroad and east of Main street, platted.

—The young folks are practicing for a school exhibition to be held sometime in June.

—The Brockway District Agricultural Society holds its annual business meeting May 20th.

—Quite a number of the people of this section attended the show at Port Huron last Saturday.

—Look at our advertising columns, and then say that Brockway Centre is not a live town, if you dare.

—D. S. Evans one of the oldest living inhabitants of the township, is going to move to Port Huron.

—H. H. McNutt, Gen'l Sup't of the Express Department of the P. H. & N. W. was in town last week.

—Are you going to see Forepaugh's "Great and Only" at Port Huron on the 22nd? Half-fare on the cars.

—Rev. F. E. Pearce was given a donation at the residence of John Raymo, in Lynn, on Tuesday evening.

—Miss Ella Fraser, of the "Sacred Heart" Academy, at Port Huron, has been visiting at home during the past few days.

—Wm. Bettis has moved back from St. Ignace. He will lay out and plat all his land on Main street, south of the railroad.

—E. Gordon, the grocer, spent a portion of last week with his family at New Baltimore. He will move his family here in a few weeks.

—Bartlett & Vanderlip sold a $100 monument to Jacob Grimes, of Speaker, on Thursday, and on Wednesday one to Mr. Murphy, of Yeddo.

—The M. P. church has been extensively repaired on the inside. It has been painted and grained and a new railing placed around the altar.

—Elder C. B. Clark preached a rousing temperance sermon Sunday evening, to a full house. Temperance folks need spurring up now and again.

—Don't be at all surprised if we say "How do you do!" although we may not be acquainted with you. We are going to stay with you, and we are bound to know you.

—If you have any probate printing to do, please request the Probate Judge to send it to this paper. We can do the work as well and as cheaply as any other paper in the county.

—Elder J. H. Paton, of Almont, will preach in the Disciple Chapel, Brockway Centre, Sunday at 11 a. m. and 3 p. m. All are cordially invited to come and hear the gospel.

—J. S. Duffie's store and office building have been moved to make room for his new block. H. Manning has the contract for the whole job, and is to have the work completed by the 15th of July.

—Look here, friends! For the first few weeks it will be like swimming with a millstone hung to one's neck for us to gather up many local items, on account of our being a stranger to the majority of you. You can aid us very materially in this matter if you will by handing in any items of news with which you may be acquainted. Please do so.
